

HOA Dining Out at the Historic Carmichael Inn Tuesday October 20, 2020

5:00 PM - Social Hour. Beer is available for sale (bring your own wine).
6:00 PM - Dinner. Order and pay your own from the menu.

The Carmichael Inn was built around 1810. The two-story log cabin was built by John Hudson Carmichael to serve as a stagecoach inn for travelers en route from Nashville, Knoxville and Chattanooga. Jerry Ragle and Shawn Bivens took ownership of the property in January 2020 and began working to get the restaurant in operation. "The thing that we're wanting to do is keep this building, it's such a historic building that it's a shame that it sits empty," Ragle said. "What we're doing is providing fine Southern comfort food, which I think is needed here in this area. It's a perfect fit for this restaurant. It just makes sense to have comfort food in a building that goes back to the 1800s."
