HISTORIC KNOXVILLE WALKING TOUR:

THE EARLY YEARS

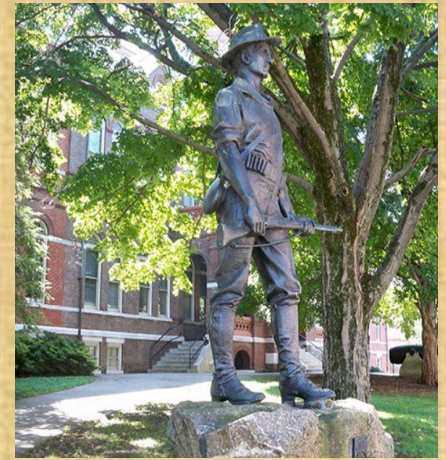

Tuesday, May 12

6:00 to 7:30 PM

$23 Per person

includes $3 non-refundable admin fee

Last day to register/cancel: April 12

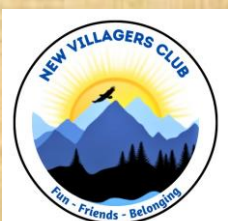

Step back over two centuries and walk in the footsteps of Knoxville's founders. Listen to the stories of White's Fort and the establishment of the Southwest Territory capital at the headwaters of the Tennessee.

Highlights include:

- First Presbyterian Graveyard—a resting place for Knoxville's most historic figures
- Blount Mansion Gardens—enjoy river view & learn about who named Knoxville
- The Old Courthouse—listen to the romantic tale of John Sevier & his two wives
- Park House—the second oldest house in Knoxville
- Bistro at the Bijou—Knoxville's oldest bar

Tour meets on the porch of the East Tennessee History Center

601 S. Gay Street, Knoxville
