

1) Join the Circle

The screenshot shows the TellicoLife website interface. At the top left is the logo with the text "TellicoLife the place to be". A callout box points to the "Help" link in the navigation bar with the text "You need to request to Join". A yellow notice box states: "Notice: This is a private circle. You will have to be a member of this circle to view the circle's content." Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for "My Community", "My Profile", "Connections", "My Features", and "Inbox". The main content area displays the "USCGAUXmembers (Private)" circle page. It includes a "Circle Information" section with details like "Category: Service Orgs", "Name: USCGAUXmembers (Private)", "Created: Sunday, January 17, 2021", and "Creator: Richard Corso". A "Circle Option" section contains a "Join Circle" button, which is circled in red. A callout box points to this button with the text "Click on Join Circle". Other sections include "Photo Albums" and "Upcoming Events".

2) Popup Message

This will pop up to verify if you want to join

The screenshot shows a "Join Circle" popup window. The title bar reads "Join Circle" with a close button (X). The main text asks: "Are you sure you want to join USCGAUXmembers?". At the bottom right, there are two buttons: "Yes" and "No". The "Yes" button is circled in red, and a callout box points to it with the text "Click Yes to Join".

3) Circle while you wait to be admitted

While awaiting approval you will see the circle like this.
