

The Public Library at Tellico Village Presents:

1ST FRIDAY AUTHORS

After many years of legal writing as a health care professional and an attorney, Vicki took several creative writing courses. The result was her book "Ghosts of the Cove" set in Cades Cove, Tennessee. Two interwoven stories carry the reader from the Civil War to the present while sharing some of the history and folklore of the Appalachian Mountains and the spirit of the people who settled them. Her books will be available for purchase.
