

AUTHOR TALK

WED. MAY 24 @ 10-11 AM

Held in the Public Library at
Tellico Village Courtyard

HEAR FROM FOUR TELLICO VILLAGE AUTHORS!

Gary Mulliner has written Four Mile, Kahite, and Beyond: A Tapestry of Tales, a compilation of stories over 15 years.

Bill Barbour will talk about his book, The Wind. This concerns his late friend Arnald who was born in Germany in 1927 and was conscripted into the German Army.

Cheryl Peyton is a mystery writer and draws from her variety of interests and experiences to create memorable characters and intricate plots.

Kathy Parr's book, Eva of the Nation: Romance and Rebellion in the Irish Famine, captures the story of Irish poet Eva Kelly O'Doherty and the events that gave rise to the dispersion of the Irish people from their homeland.

Registration required: 865-458-5199