

by Pamela Parker Directed by Len Willis

APRIL 8-11 & 15-18

Second Samuel is a poignant comedy/drama about family and diversity. It's a simpler time in the late 1940s, especially in South Georgia and specifically in a sleepy little town called Second Samuel. What had been called the Great Depression is quickly fading into memory. The war has been won, the election is now over, and "Give 'em Hell Harry" is still president. It's been an exciting time for sure, but the folks in Second Samuel are ready for things to settle down and get back to normal. Except—this is the summer Miss Gertrude passes away, and deep dark secrets are about to be revealed. Nobody could have imaged how the death of one sweet little old lady would turn the entire town upside down, leaving everybody in Second Samuel wondering if anything would ever be normal again!
