Have you ever wondered what the backstage of a theatre looks like or what goes on back there while you are in the audience watching a play? We have an event planned that will answer many of these questions. We'd like to invite you to the theatre for an afternoon of information and investigation.

We need your help to keep our plays soaring! Join us for an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of our playhouse and discover how you can save the day as a volunteer. You'll get a quick introduction to the magic of theatre before exploring your options to join our team. Even if you don't think you have the time to volunteer, just being able to roam backstage, see our facility and talk with our volunteers may change your mind. If it doesn't, you won't need to wonder what our Green Room looks like or where the actors dress and prepare for the show. There are a surprising number of talents needed to produce a play and you may have one of them. The amount of time required to support each job varies by the position and by the complexity of the play. YOU decide how many days you want to donate and we will fit you in. We also offer workshops and on the job training to get you started.

If you love theatre, you will love this experience. You may decide you would like to join our team and we would love to have you.
