

Illinois Club of Tellico Village, Loudon

Who we Are

We're much more than alive and kicking.

The Illinois Club of Tellico Village is a social organization where volunteers organize activities and events of interest to members.

Club activities are broadcast via Email to members by the President, published in local papers and on TV.

The annual Illinois Club Membership dues are $5 per individual, $10 per household, available by check or cash.

How do I become a member? It's really a matter of just showing up and presenting a "fiver" or a good check.

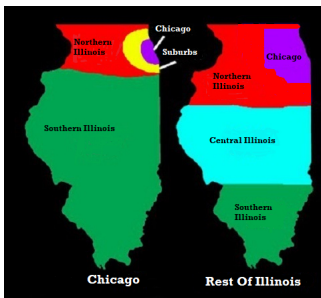

Membership qualification questions:

- Name three of the four former Illinois governors served or are serving prison sentences?
- Which of the four was not Governor when prisoned?
- But, will it play in Peoria? - Which river passes through Peoria?
- What is the most southern city in Illinois?
- If you are standing in Quincy looking across the mighty Mississippi, which state are you seeing?
- Tie breaker: If a plane crashes on the Illinois / Wisconsin state line (near the oleo / cheese country), which state is it in?

If you failed to get 50% right answers, you still may be admitted to this exclusive club if you have the sec
